

ACCESS/PARKING:

- End of Casey Lane. [GPS Address: 45 Casey Lane]
- End of Ketcham Road. [GPS Address: 51 Ketcham Road]

DIFFICULTY: Easy. 20 minutes.

FEATURES: Mar-Joy Pond is part of the Titicus river watershed. An old road leads to a beautiful stream and waterfall. A bridge crossing provides the perfect spot for a Spring picnic. Mountain laurel and spring wildflowers, especially jack-in-the-pulpit, are abundant in the area.

The old Ridgefield pegmatite mine on this property was a source for quartz, beryl, feldspar, and mica. High granite walls border the trail in one spot.

The remains of an old fireplace built from local rocks marks the site of the former landowner's picnic area.

HISTORY: This combination of properties was acquired through several subdivisions.
